

I am an Over The Road trucker and my business depends on knowing what the weather is doing so that I may safely deliver the products that this nation consumes. Local stations are usually not available in close enough proximity to help me find out weather and traffic conditions in the larger cities around the country.

Please continue broadcasting these vital services on XM radio.